CHEF ANGELA LYLE & ASSISTANT CHEF TOM LUND

Angela likes to create eclectic foods from across the world, putting her own twist on traditional dishes. In 1994, Angela opened Ravens Downunder with her husband, Dennis, where they had the honor of feeding the President of the United States at a town hall meeting. He loved the homemade salsa. Prior to this, they wandered the region selling their cookbook, Montana Country Cookin, and did events selling their award winning chili. Ravens Cafe d'Art opened in 2012, where they serve weekday lunches, take home dinners and offer catering services. Angela spends her spare time with the kids, grandkids, 2 dogs and 2 cats, camping, hiking and cooking (of course). Chef Tom assists Angela both in the kitchen and in class. Drawing from his long career in the food industry which began on the East Coast, he continued in the steak and fish eateries of Wisconsin plus 5 years at an international private dining club in Colorado. Tom helps develop and execute recipes for the classes. In his spare time, he floats the rivers and romps with his two dogs.

STAYING SAFE & HEALTHY AT THE YAM
The YAM is committed to providing a safe environment for everyone who walks through our doors. YAM safety protocols are subject to change based on the CDC guidelines. If necessary, class sizes may be decreased, masks may be necessary, or classes may be canceled. Updated information will be available online. Registered students will be contacted directly about any changes. Thanks for your patience.
